Orders for goods and delivery must be paid for in advance in pounds sterling by UK bank. Goods remain the property of Stemp & Co until paid for in full. Goods are normally despatched within two working days (Mondays to Fridays, excluding Bank Holidays) of receipt for payment for goods and delivery.

Under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 in the UK, customers have the following rights and duties: -

- 1) The right, within 14 days from the date of receipt of the goods, to cancel their order.
- 2) Customers must send a written notice of cancellation by email, post or fax to Stemp & Co. at or before the expiration of those 14 days. Within 14 days of receipt of notice of cancellation, Stemp & Co. will refund the cost of the goods and their delivery charges, and may require the return of the goods at the purchaser's expense.
- 3) Goods must be returned in their original packaging in saleable condition. Stemp & Co. may make a deduction from the reimbursement for loss of value of any goods supplied if the loss is as a result of unnecessary handling by you.
